

The only all-in-one CRM & Marketing solution that makes life simple for a small business and its customers by automating its rewards programs.

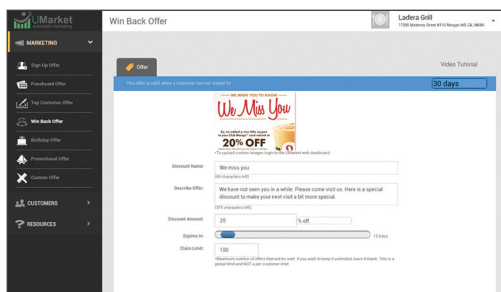

UMarket collects purchase data on your Clover device to identify your best customers and your lost customers — and automatically sends the right offers to the right customers at the right time to grow your sales. Social and mobile customers simply join with an email address.

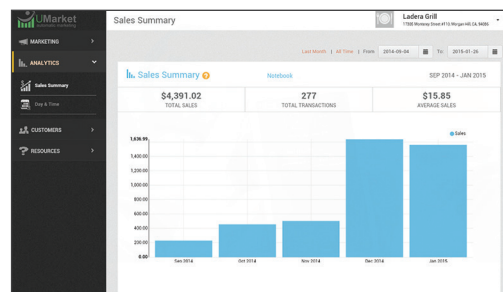

Automatically thank your customers and turn a first time visitor into a returning customer

Automatically punch virtual punch cards to reinforce your customers' loyalty to your business without any manual swiping or punching of cards

Automatically provide incentives to win back customers who have not visited your store recently and renew their loyalty to your business

Measure the performance of all your marketing programs and their impact on your sales
